

How to create a more POSITIVE RELATIONSHIP WITH YOUR TEEN

- Identify one specific negative family pattern – change it and you will improve your relationships.
- Learn what parents mistakenly do that lowers teen's self-esteem – turn this around and raise their self-esteem.
- Discover the #1 destructive mistake that creates conflict and pain – learn how to do things differently.

Monday, May 16

6:30 – 8:30 pm

Bob Prittie Metrotown Branch
6100 Willingdon Avenue

Klaus Klein is a registered Clinical Counsellor with the BC Association of Clinical Counsellors. He has a Masters of Arts (MA) degree in Clinical Psychology from Antioch University of Seattle, WA. Currently he has his own counselling service KDK Counselling Services, focusing on teens and parents.

This event is free, but space is limited. Please register online at www.bpl.bc.ca or call 604-436-5400.

Burnaby Public Library
www.bpl.bc.ca

Follow us:

 facebook.com/burnabypubliclibrary
 @burnabypl